Special

Our list of very special and rare wines.

All are available by the glass because we want you to try them.

Whites

exceptionally soft & delicate nose, very rich on fruit, slightly smoky, elegant and focused

(112) Pinot Grigio “Dessimus”, Italy, Vie di Romans, 2011 £16 £59

structured richness, red apple, pear, stone fruit, honeysuckle, layered sweetness from refined oak

(151) Chardonnay Journeyman, California, Peter Seghesio, 2012 £20 £78

Reds:

exuberant and complex nose of red berries, leather, truffle and floral notes, the palate shows tremendous depth, balance and elegance

(126) Rioja Gran Reserva Especial, Spain, Castillo Ygay, 2004 £20 £76

sweet spices, hint of herbs and truffles, nose and texture are enticing, long finish. This wine is all power on a leash

(75) Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru, France, Burgundy, Drouhin Laroze, 2004 £25 £100

Quirky

Something a little bit different from the norm

Imagine an almond cake full of white nectarine, blood orange and melon – laced with linseed, tarragon and lightly smoked tea. This is an alternative style that is both intricate and textural, a concoction created by fermenting entirely with naturally occurring yeast.

(142) Wild Sauvignon blanc, New Zealand, Greywacke, 2014 £55

Unctuous and full-bodied, this vivacious white evokes vanilla custard, pear and lanolin aromas and flavors, all kept focused by a lively structure.

Fine length and harmony

(33) Tokay Pinot Gris Altenbourg, France, Alsace, Domaine Weinbach, 2002 £69

Ripe fruit aromas of red cherry and cranberry are followed by rose petal and notes of cinammon, nutmeg and red liquorice. The tannins are silky and very soft, quickly yielding to lively acidity and a long, gentle, mineral finish

(155) Pinot Noir, U.S.A., Sonoma Coast, California, Littorai, 2013 £79

This attractive Malbec surprises with its intensity and vibrant purple colour. On the nose it has clear mineral and spicy notes due to the altitude of the vineyards, combined with aromas of black fruits, mature cherry, hints of vanilla and coffee. An elegant, powerful wine with great structure, roundness and persistence

(163) Malbec, Argentina, Kaiken, 2011 £78

Single bottle list

Our single bottle list includes rare and special wines
Unfortunately we may have only one bottle on some of these vintages.

Whites:

powerful, concentrated, round. Golden Delicious apples, layered citrus and white peach, with typical minerality and wonderful balance.
(64) Meursault “Sous la Velle”, Burgundy, France, Domaine David Moret, 2013 £79

silkily textured, buttery, minerally, sumptuous yet lively, showing notes of violet, blossom honey, butter, stone fruit and citrus, stunning length and so beautifully balanced.

(66) Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, Burgundy, France, Domaine Rollin, 2009 £105

white flower, lemon honeysuckle nose. generous weight with good fruit, structure nicely but closer to round than angular. some background wood spice but well integrated. good extract and mineral on the finish

(59) Chassagne Montrachet 1er Cru, Burgundy, France, Domaine Pillot, 2004 £90

Straw yellow. The nose reveals delicate flint aromas, citrus fruits such as lemon zest and orange and a touch of toasted hazelnuts. A vibrant freshness and elegance. Good balance in the mouth, lovely texture with a sustained finish.

(62) Chablis Grand Cru Vaudesier, Chablis, France, Bernard Defaix, 2013 £75

A deep pale yellow with a silver tint. The nose is fresh and intense with floral and pear aromas. On the palate, elegant flavours of pear are supported with a smokiness. Sugar and acidity are beautifully balanced on the long finish

(32) Pinot Gris reserve, Alsace, France, Hunawehr, 2013 £54

It makes up for less power with more charm. But there is enormous strength underneath: dense layers of peach and apple fruit packed on top of ripe juicy mineral. Vibrant, pure, elegant and long. Only 7% alcohol, perfect summer wine.

(24) Riesling Spätlese, Mosel, Germany, Fritz Haag, 2008 £45

Reds:

A good deep red, complex aroma of wild raspberry, chocolate and herbs. Slightly flavours of cherry, raspberry, liquorice, mint and wild herbs. This wine needs to be decanted to reveal cherry and pomegranate fruit. Drying tannins.

(80) Savigny les beune 1er Cru la dominode, Burgundy, France, Bruno Clair, 2004 £81

Lovely, complex and very red fruity nose of cherries, strawberries, nutskins, a fine base of soil, woodsmoke, a nice dollop of cocoa and a deft framing of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, pure and very elegant, with a sappy core of red fruit, lovely soil drive and excellent length and grip on the moderately tannic finish. A very high class villages!

(72) Nuits St. Georges, Burgundy, France, Domaine Chevellion, 2012 £69

Cherry-red with ruby highlights, bright and deep. On the nose intense fruit notes with variations around wild blackberry, blackcurrant and juicy pomegranate. As the wine breathes, more spicy white pepper and cinnamon notes develop. The complexity increases ten-fold and the bouquet is a harmony of clear notes – fruit and then more full-bodied notes. The same sensation dominate the palate. The silky, velvety tannins give volume to the medium long finish.

(B21) Hermitage Syrah, Rhone, France, Domaine Belle, 2008 £75

A blend of 70% Merlot, 24% Cabernet Franc, and the rest Cabernet Sauvignon, the wine is deep ruby/purple with a sweet nose of graphite, charcoal, black currant and black cherry fruit. It has an attractive, subtle smokiness, nicely restrained new oak, a full-bodied mouthfeel, and outstanding concentration and length.

(B07) Chateau Beau-Sejour Becot, Bordeaux, France, 1er Grand Cru St.Emilion, 2006 £110

This wine shows a very dark ruby color with a hint of pink at the rim. The aromatics are beginning to emerge from just pure fruit-driven notes to secondary characteristics. Sweet earth, truffle, black currant, underbrush, and licorice emerge with coaxing. In the mouth, the wine is powerful, dense, with high tannin., impressive concentration, and a formidable, sort of old-style personality

(51) Chateau Leoville Barton 2nd Cru Classe St. Julien, Bordeaux, France, 1986 £185

The most impressive Lagrange produced in over a decade, the 2000 exhibits an opaque purple color along with a big, smoky nose of new oak intermixed with creme de cassis, cherries, saddle leather, and spice. With medium to full body, high tannin, and impressive richness as well as length, it will be at its finest between 2008-2025

(B06) Chateau Lagrange St Julien, Bordeaux, France, Domaine Belle, 2000 £120

Nose is slightly musty old leather luggage, damp earth, wet boots, matured cigar leaf, very deep and perfect old Bordeaux. Palate is gorgeous old leather, fresh prunes, confit dates, confit figs, beautiful sweetness, very mouth warming and velvety, dusky fully mature raspberries and autumn blackberries. Moderate length and short but sweet resonance. Further time in the glass gives it old plums and Eastern spices, still good moderate acidity, fully resolved dusty tannins

(49) Chateau Phelan Segur, Bordeaux, France, St. Estephe, 1982 £130

a nose of dark fruits mixed with floral notes, all underpinned by a balanced mix of tobacco and vanilla. It's the palate that really surprises as it has retained an unexpected freshness and purity that integrates the same notes as the nose and all wrapped up in an amazingly velvety mouthfeel. A clean, medium length finish.

(48) Chateau d'Issan 3rd Cru Classe, Bordeaux, France, Margaux, 1988 £120

Deep in colour, nearing opaque. The nose is restrained but hints at ripe dark berry. The fruit seems abundant on the palate, with a gently mouthfilling nature and ample fleshy fruits. An appealing, textured style, with fine freshness revealed throughout. Poised and well-focused with just the merest hint of charred oak, this is one of the finer Clerc-Milons of recent years, with lingering, mineral-infused dark fruits

(46) Chateau Clerc Milon, Bordeaux, France, Grand Cru Pauillac, 2006 £105

Elegant peppery, black cherry, olive, smoky, meaty, tobacco aromas. Round, suave, fresh palate with juicy acidity. Clean black cherry, meaty, peppery, savoury, tobacco flavours with fine intensity and length

(116) Barbera D'Asti 'Libera', Italy, Domaine Bava, 2012 £45

Slightly mature and perfumed bouquet with cassis, light smoke, oak, chocolate, leather and tobacco. On the palate ripe red and dark forest fruits, sweet spices, bell pepper, good oak, some coffee, pleasant acidity and tannin. Fairly full bodied and a good length

(43) Chateau de Fieuzal, Bordeaux, France, Pessac-Leognan, 1998 £69

This is a true classic of the appellation, a wine that embraces tradition and a sense of place. The wine has an imposing structure and depth, as much in its aromas of mature fruit and spices, as on the palate, where alcohol is sustained by balanced acidity and refined tannins

(117) Amarone di Valpolicella, Veneto, Italy, Allegrini, 2011 £82

Deep, garnet red in colour. The bouquet is ethereal and enveloping with intense and persistent notes of sweet spice, sandalwood, tobacco and leather. The palate is well-structured, mineral, harmonious and balanced, with fine-grained, elegant tannins. A typical Barolo from Castiglione Falletto with a persistent liquorice note on the finish.

(119) Barolo 'Parussi', Italy, Serralunga d'Alba, Massolino, 2008 £96

The colour is a deep dark red, the nose is a complex, intriguing mixture of figs, prunes, leather, dark tea, tobacco, black olives with spices and a certain earthiness. The palate has ripe black cherries, figs, damsons - even chocolate and olives. There is good acidity with nice smooth tannins, full-bodied, rich and velvety and with very good length.

(137) Chateau Musar, Lebanon, Gaston Hochar, 2000 £52

With a rich ruby red colouration, as with the style from Chateau Ka, this wine offers aromas of spice and red fruit with a delicate bouquet. Peppery notes, soft tannins and a well rounded finish make up this Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah and Merlot blend

(135) Source de Rouge, Lebanon, Chateau Ka, 2012 £45

The nose is lifted and inviting with obvious plum, cassis and cedar romas. The palate is pure and highly polished with deep black fruit and spicy oak notes adding a further element of complexity. A stunning Bordeaux blend from the cooler, maritime climate of Tasmania

(147) Cabernet Sauvignon 'Stoney Vineyard', Tasmania, Domaine A., 2010 £48

Lively and intense, with a true old-vines, limited-production character. The color, nose and palate are all potent and masculine. There's a ton of new oak on the nose, but it's textbook modern-style Rioja. Cassis, blackberry and various woody adornments make it work, and the finish is black as coal. Drink from late 2009 and on.

(125) Hiru 3 Rioja Racimos, Rioja, Spain, Luis Canas, 2004 £105
